Grocery Buying

Grocery buying should have careful attention. It's easy to make a mistake. We believe better groceries are the cheaper groceries. Careful buyers also know this. Grocery buying is your business and

Grocery Selling

is our business. We sell only "better" groceries, and we sell them for the least money possible.

LOCALS TO PLAY MERRILL COLTS

GAME WILL BE PLAYED AT MERRILL
SUNDAY AFTERNOON—
FAST GAME IS BEING PRE-DICTED BY THE FANS

Klamath Falls versus the Merrill Colts will be the baseball attraction at Merrill Sunday afternoon, arrangements being completed for a game between these two fast Klamath county nine. This replaces the game with Stinson.

Both teams have been practicing hard of late, and will enter the game with the idea of winning. Gay Mer-rill's Colts have been getting into shape for several weeks, and they march on the diamond Sunday with the avowed intention of capturing the scalp of the contingent from the county seat.

The team will line up as follows: Merrill—Blodgett, pitcher; Stevenson, catcher; Dyer, first base; Frank Vorhater, second base; L. Vorhater, third base; Pete Vorhater, shortstop; Pope, left field; Manning, center field; Vorhater, right field.

Klamath Falls—Salvo, pitcher; Thresher, catcher; Arnold, first base; Meener, second base; Ambrose, third base; French, shortstop; Baum, left field; Maxwell, centerfield; Noel, right field.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

(Communications sent to the Herald for publication in this department should not exceed 300 words in length and must be accompanied by the name and address of the sender.)

Editor Herald: The recent action of the city council reminds me of the dying efforts of a fighting cock.
After more than one whole year of wrangling and bullying, in its dying moments, it imposes upon the head of the police force the childish duty to clear the sidewalks along Main street. And, in making the order, it evidences the extreme partiality of demanding only the removal of the little sandwich boards and barber poles. Nothing has been said of other obstructions. Of course, there is more time, and, perhaps, if the council remained unchanged, after another series of meetings, lasting through a period of more than a dozen months, an order will be given to the chief of police to see that the K. K. K. store removes the showcase on the sidewalk in front of its place of business. The removal of the awkward columns in front of the First National bank might also be mentioned in a whisper.

I do not blame the council for doing as they have done, and for not doing many things that have been overlooked. Last winter the writer complained to the honorable mayor, the chief of police, and to several councilmen about a commercial wood business being carried on in front street in front of his home. Relief was promised, and it came when the demand for wood was sufficient to put the dealer out of business. Perhaps a signboard 15 inches wide is a bigger obstruction on a 12-foot sidewalk than several hundred cords of wood in a 60-foot street in the residence section.

The action of the council makes it apparent that there is an excess of energy that must be expended in some manner. I would like to suggest that it can be turned loose on barn and yard owned by Mrs. Hanley on Tenth street. The little sign-board may hinder progress along the street during a Fourth of July celebration, but this particular barn and numerous others menace the good health of the city, and may add a few mounds to the growing number on the hillside.

I am in favor of clean streets, but I cannot say that I favor wearing a clean dicky and a filthy suit of underwear at the same time. I am with the council, heart and soul, in their efforts to get a cleaner city, but I cannot approve of child's play when there is men's work to be done.

The past cannot be recalled, and so I shall say nothing more about the wood business in the street, but I shall hope that the council will see that it does not occur again. My signboard, designed to help me make a living, and to assist some newcomer to get either a permanent or temporary home, I shall store in the closet, where should be stored the skeletons of the municipal family, instead of being paraded at the council chamber once or twice a month.

WM. WAGNER.

and are gone enough to make a low price for cash, see Chilcote at 603

What's the Matter With the Old Watch?

It's not getting any younger, you know, and once in a while it needs a rest and overhauling. Railroad watches are cleaned and overhauled once a year to insure accurate timekeeping. Why not bring yours in and let us give it the attention that is necessary for good time keeping.

LORELLA FOLKS TO GIVE PLAY

"A COUNTRY KID" WILL BE THE PRODUCTION, AND PROGRAM WILL BE RENDERED BE-TWEEN ACTS

(Special Correspondence.)

LORELLA, Or., May 16.—Preparations are being made by the Lorella school for a three-act drama, entitled "The Country Kid," which will be presented on May 17. A varied program, consisting of songs and recitations, will be given between acts, and a fine time is assured all those who attend.

The pupils who took the eighth grade examination this week at Lorella were Gladys Poole, Florence Hogg, Leon Jardine and Howard Winnard.

Mr. Bykes Hamaker, who is employed by W. D. Campbell, met with an unfortunate accident early this week, when a horse that he was working reared suddenly, and struck him in the face, breaking out two teeth and shinning his head badly.

Mrs. Oscar Campbell is visiting a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Walker.

There will be a farewell party given at the school house Tuesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Cowley, who leave shortly for Washington, and for Mr. and Mrs. John Hutchins.
